Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Preliminary Amendment

The preliminary amendment filed 16 November 2001 and 27 March 2002 have been entered.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: appropriate section headings are not provided. Appropriate correction is required.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 14-52 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-22 of U.S. Patent No. 6,327,031. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because '031 provides (as shown in claim 1 of '031): an optical disc for use in conducting an optical inspection of a biological, chemical or biochemical sample in association with an optical reader capable of scanning and reading optical discs with a beam of light, said disc comprising:

an optically transparent substrate having a semi-reflective layer which reflects a portion of the beam of light to form a reflected and transmitted beams, and a sample support surface to be scanned by the reader for receiving the biological, chemical or biochemical sample, wherein the semi-reflective layer includes optically readably encoded information.

Claims 2-22 provide colored, reflective or fluorescent material attached to the sample support, a gel and electrodes, an optical inspection assembly, locating the sample surface between the radiation source and the semi-reflective layer, two or three detectors, a video monitor, detection of reflected and transmitted light, and encoded information.
